

The Office of Intercultural Relations
At Lake Forest College
Presents:

Soup & Stories Series

My Life in Palestine

Come to a presentation by Lake Forest College student, Raneen Hasuna, as she talks about her experience growing up in Palestine.

Wed, September 27th
12:00 - 1:00 pm
Library 221

The shortest distance between two points is usually inaccessible.

Come hear Lake Forest College student David Kuriniec's story about disability awareness and activism.

Wed, October 25th
12:00 - 1:00 pm
Library 221

Does Modern Slavery Exist in Florida?

Francisca Cortez, of the Coalition of Immokalee workers, will speak about her experiences as a recent immigrant picking tomatoes in the fields of Florida.

Wed, October 18th
12:00 - 1:00 PM
Pierson Rooms

Doors open at 11:45 am with presentation to begin at 12:00 pm

Crossing the border

Join Lake Forest College Student Norma Guerrero as she talks about her family's immigration to the United States.

Mon, November 6th
12:00 - 1:00 PM
Pierson Rooms

Refreshments include soups, crackers and drinks.