Experienced and aspiring writers alike can get to the next level with this creative writing seminar taught by award-winning poet and novelist Joshua Corey. Students will meet for four two-hour class sessions in the comfortable setting of Glen Rowan House on the Lake Forest College campus and each will receive an end-of-term writing project evaluation, as well as an individual “Next Steps” conference with Professor Corey.

Joshua Corey teaches modern poetry and fiction, creative writing, and environmental literature at Lake Forest College. A collection of critical essays entitled The Transcendental Circuit: Other Worlds of Poetry (MadHat Press) was published in early 2018. He is the author of four poetry collections, most recently The Barons (Omnidawn Publishing, 2014), and a novel, Beautiful Soul: An American Elegy (Spuyten Duyvil). With G. C. Waldrep he co-edited an anthology of innovative nature poetry, The Arcadia Project: North American Postmodern Pastoral (Ahsakta Press, 2012); with Jean-Luc Garneau he translated Francis Ponge’s Partisan of Things (Kenning Editions, 2016). A new work of poetry, Hannah and the Master, about Hannah Arendt and Martin Heidegger, will be published later this year. Learn more at joshua-corey.com.
