OFFICE OF COMMUNITY EDUCATION

We're delighted you'll be joining us for the FALL COMMUNITY LECTURE SERIES, where outstanding Lake Forest College faculty members will share the academic life of the College with community residents.

FALL 2019 LECTURE SERIES: ASPECTS OF ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

Wednesday, September 18, 2019, 10:30 a.m. to noon

“Rapt Attention to Flowers: Lasting Stories from Ephemeral Things” –
Professor Glenn Adelson

Wednesday September 25, 2019, 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

“Literature of the Great Lakes” – Professor Ben Goluboff

Wednesday, October 2, 2019, 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

“The Overlooked Splendor of Ants: Restoration Ecology and the Ants in Your Backyard” – Professor Sean Menke

Each lecture will last about an hour, followed by Q&A and then an informal reception. Please note that the first lecture will be at 10:30 a.m. and the second and third will be at 1:00 p.m. We have attached to this email a list of suggested readings in case you want to pursue some subject.

ALL LECTURES WILL BE IN LILLARD SCIENCE CENTER'S MCCORMICK AUDITORIUM ON MIDDLE CAMPUS, Sheridan and College Road. A map of the campus is attached.

PARKING AND SHUTTLE: Parking on Middle Campus is tight. We suggest parking at Glen Rowan. A shuttle between Glen Rowan and Lillard Science Center will run continuously from 45 minutes before the lecture until the lecture starts. Shuttle return between Lillard Science Center and Glen Rowan will run continuously from the close of the Q&A period for an hour.

HAVE TO MISS A LECTURE? We invite you to give your seat to a guest. Please provide your guest's name to Brenda Dick, 224-250-6287.
